Who: G.I.

Pack: Rat Bastard, Twatever, Analickital, Randy, Anya, Quinn, Seoul Brudda, YerAnAnalCyst, Lil' Sacs, Dogmeat, Gene-Y-Ass, KeyHole, Dr. O, No Genitals, SuckEmUp, Massengil, Cereal Killer, Just Bruce, Just Beth.

Late Cummer: Breast Stroke

The pack gathered at a condo complex in what seemed like Anywhere, NJ on a damn cold afternoon. The hare gave a short introduction – follow flour and arrows. No checks. There was an immediate chicken/eagle split and the chickens (including Seoul Brudda who was whining about his hurty calf) headed through the condos, past the garbage bins and out into the muddy, watery woods. Attempts to avoid the muck were futile and the chickens pushed through while gingerly attempting to keep feet as dry as possible. We balanced our way across a couple of logs and were glad to see the hare along with most of the pack at the beer check. A wonderful view of murky Passaic flood plains was enjoyed by all. After wetting our lips, we headed back out, detouring to see the haphazard shooting range that was being used earlier in the day. A short loop brought us back to the start, and it became apparent that the scribe was among the DFLs. The circle was postponed until the pack arrived at the On-In.

CIRCLE

FRB: SuckEmUp

DFLs: cK, GeneYAss, YerAnAnalCyst

The trail was declared too dry, with too few bullets, and the hare (GI) drank willingly. The Virgins (Just Matt, Just Paul) were welcomed (Just Beth made them cum) and completed their down-down's with good form. Dogmeat was made to drink for overachieving after he took a little extra jog around the condo lot while waiting for the chickens to drag themselves in. No Genitals drank for being a reboot (last hash in Oct '07). cK drank for landing himself in the hospital and thereby missing the SH3 Interhash. He reportedly ate some suspect schnitzel and then finished it off to confirm that it really was bad. Unfortunately, the schnitzel then did it's best to finish him off... Dr. O also drank for missing the Interhash and then having the audacity to show up with his Aruba tan. Just Matt drank for moving to NJ to escape a criminal history in Florida. He assured us he'd only been arrested once in NJ. Hashers may wish to lock their cars if he continues to show up. GeneYAss drank for not recognizing U.S. sports since she called a basketball a football. Rat Bastard got pulled in for good measure (Oh, Canada...). Dogmeat was called out for not being able to get in the door. Apparently he spent a lot of time pulling on it, but couldn't get in. Poor, poor GeneYAss. Massengil tried to make GI drink for unfulfilled promises of precipitation, but ended up drinking himself since the hare only promised that 50% of the hashers would have a 50% chance of being rained on or a 50% chance of being snowed on about 50% of their body and so the drinking should be split 50-50 (or something like that) so both ended up drinking. There were cries of too much statistical anal-icing, foreshadowing a later accusation by the most Analickital hasher of all (see below) Rat Bastard called the dogs and dog owners in for a drink (Analickital, Twatever, YerAnAnalCyst, Dogmeat, Lil' Sacs in absentia) apparently forgetting that he too would be partaking (or perhaps that dirty Rat was just after an extra beer??). GeneYAss then called SuckEmUp in for complaining that his DFL down down was too small...and was duly punished for mis-speaking since he was FRB. The other DFLs were called in to join her (ck, YerAnAnalCyst). Massengil and Just Matt drank for leaning on their pool cues during the circle. Dr. O was called into the circle by Analickital who had been pouring through the SH3 receding harelines, anal-eying the numbers and determined that Dr. O has hared or co-hared 65 hashes, the most of any SH3 hasher. Dr. O was immediately called back in to drink by Dogmeat for starting his down-down prematurely.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next week (January 26) is the HAGGIS HASH presented by Camel Bowels
On April 5th, SuckEmUp promises a short trail with a long on-in to celebrate Prodigy's $th birthday
Analickital announced the 6th Anniversary Happy Together hash with DogEStyle on February 9th and a special leap year hash on February 29th.

The hashers entertained/embarrassed themselves with a few games of pool. Just Beth showed her inexperience handling such long wood by just scratching the balls. Dogmeat continued to have problems getting anything in anywhere (again, poor, poor GeneYAss). Ultimately, they were soundly beaten by Massengil and Just Matt. After a loooooong wait, the food arrived in shifts, with Just Paul, Massengil, and YerAnAnalCyst being served about 30 mins after the rest of the pack. No worries, we were entertained by Lil' Sacs leading us in "Today is Monday" (with some coaching by GeneYAss) and Dr. O and Just Beth's beer twister antics.

At some point in the evening, the circle was re-opened to allow Lil' Sacs to drink for dogs on trail. The opportunity was also taken to recognize Massengil and Seoul Brudda for marking the trail (peeing on trail).

Hash Cash was $18...more than double the prior week and not a shred of arugula in sight..

Once we were all paid up and ready to leave, Breast Stroke showed up and collected 2008 from anyone who'd give them to him.

On-Out!
